‘THINK BITS’

Reporting Date : 20th Feb-2026, Friday

Reporting Time : 3:15 pm, A- Block, Auditorium

Event Code: TBG-HD1

Organized by: IEEE VGEC SB

General Guidelines

- Participation is open only to those who have successfully registered for the event.
- Entry will only be permitted when final registration check is done during the reporting time.
- Follow coordinators' instructions strictly at every activity station.
- Maintain discipline and decorum throughout the event.
- Any misconduct, arguments, or disrespectful behaviour may lead to immediate disqualification .

About

- The Technical Games event is designed to test participants' analytical thinking, problem-solving abilities, general awareness, and presence of mind through a structured three-round competition.
- The event is divided into three challenging rounds, each focusing on different skill sets:
  - Round 1 – Knowledge & Aptitude Assessment : This round consists of an objective test covering Aptitude, General Knowledge, Current Affairs, and Mental Ability. It evaluates logical reasoning, numerical skills, awareness of current trends, and overall intellectual capability.
  - Round 2 – Puzzle Challenge : The second round is a puzzle-based competition designed to assess critical thinking, pattern recognition, and problem-solving efficiency under time constraints.

- Round 3 – ButterFingers (Team Battle ) : The final round, titled “ButterFingers,” is a fast-paced team competition. Shortlisted participants will be grouped into teams, and the teams will compete against each other in a rapid-response format where speed and accuracy are crucial.
- The winning team will then face off in a final showdown. Based on their performance in the ultimate round, participants will be ranked and awarded 1st, 2nd, and 3rd positions.

Fair Play & Integrity Clause

- All participants must maintain honesty, integrity, and professionalism throughout the event.
- Any form of cheating, plagiarism, copying answers, or unfair collaboration will result in immediate disqualification.
- Use of unauthorized devices, external assistance, or unfair means is strictly prohibited.
- Participants must follow all rules and instructions provided by coordinators and judges.
- Respect towards fellow participants, volunteers, and organizers is mandatory.
- Any attempt to disrupt another team’s performance will lead to penalties or disqualification.
- The decision of the judges and organizing committee will be final and binding.

Judging Criteria

The evaluation of participants will be conducted round-wise based on the following parameters:

Round 1 – Knowledge & Aptitude Assessment

- Accuracy of Answers
- Total Marks Scored

Participants will be ranked based on the number of correct responses. Higher marks will determine qualification for the next round.

Round 2 – Puzzle Challenge

- Number of Puzzles Correctly Solved / Matched

Participants who successfully solve or match the highest number of puzzles within the given time will qualify for the next round.

Round 3 – ButterFingers

- Time Efficiency
- Speed and Accuracy of Responses

Teams will be evaluated based on how quickly and correctly they respond. The team with the best time performance will advance, and final rankings (1st, 2nd, and 3rd) will be decided accordingly.

All decisions made by the judges and organizing committee will be final and binding.
